Being an EFA FTI Partner:
Mutual Accountability Matrix

by Laurent Cortese, EFA FTI Secretariat

FTI Board Meeting

18 – 19 May 2011 | Kigali, Rwanda

Background for Board Discussion

1. Proposal for a process to improve mutual accountability within the EFA FTI Partnership

2. Encourage discussion for specific inputs on the proposal

Improving mutual accountability for results

- Agree on objectives we want to achieve
- Identify activities to achieve these objectives
- Describe roles & responsibilities of partners
- Link investments with results
- Enable monitoring of commitments at all levels

EFA FTI Compact

Developing Country Partners

- Develop sound education plans
- Ensure strong domestic support to education
- Demonstrate leadership for plan implementation

Mutual Accountability

Donors, Multilateral Agencies, CSOs, private foundations and sector

- Mobilize additional resources
- Make aid predictable
- Harmonize procedures
- Align with national education program

What do you commit to?

Areas of Commitment for EFA FTI Partners
Development and implementation of education sector plans	Improved data quality
Sustainable financing for the education sector	Improved aid effectiveness
Advocacy to raise the profile of education	Dissemination of good practices and filling knowledge gaps

Mutual Accountability Matrix

Partner / Area of Commitment	Developing Country Partner Government	Bilateral Donor	Multilateral Agencies	CSOs	Private Foundations/ Sector
Development and implementation of education plans	X
Improved data quality	X	X	X		X
Sustainable financing for education sector	X	X	X	X
Improved aid effectiveness	X	X	X	X
Advocacy to raise profile of education	X	X	X	X	X

Formalizing the commitments

1. Charter of the EFA FTI

2. Statements of intent
   - Specific commitments
   - Individual statements

3. Monitoring report on partners commitments

Next Steps

May– Sept. 2011	Partnership Consultations
December 2011	Finalization of statements of intent
Spring 2012	1st Monitoring Report