Why move to a single fund arrangement?

• Connect policy decisions with resource allocation decisions
• Strengthen the impact of governance reforms
• Serve countries better through adoption of “PACE” principles
• Focus on implementation monitoring rather than allocation processing
• Streamline fund allocation decision-making and reporting processes
• Increase flexibility of available funding
• Address the multiple roles of the World Bank in FTI

Agencies own policies and procedures
Who can supervise an EFA Fund allocation?

• No “default” SE

• FTI multilateral and bilateral partners may serve as SE

• LEG selects SE for country level work; Call for Proposal process identifies Global/Regional activity SEs

• Funds are made available to SEs through transfer agreements

Global and Regional Activity program

- Objective: Leverage the value add of the FTI Partnership by expanding and sharing education sector knowledge

- Focus on 3 priority thematic areas for a 3 year cycle (learning outcomes, out of school children, education financing)

- Identify knowledge gaps and results to achieve (link with the results framework)

- Solicit work through call for proposals
GRA program development and implementation process

- Nov. 2010: FTI Board confirm FTI thematic areas
- 1st Quarter 2011: Consult with Partnership
- 2nd Quarter 2011: Develop and issue terms of reference
- 3rd Quarter 2011: Submit and validate proposals
- 4th Quarter 2011: Negotiate transfer agreement and begin implementation
Decision requested (1)

• BOD/2010/11-X – Name of New Trust Fund: The Board of Directors approves the name of the new, single trust fund as the EFA Fund.

• BOD/2010/11-X – Finalization of the EFA Fund: The Board of Directors requests the FTI Secretariat to proceed with finalization of all necessary actions to establish the EFA Fund, which will be managed by the World Bank as trustee. The FTI Secretariat shall present to the Financial Advisory Committee the EFA Fund Governance Document, which shall reflect inputs of the Board of Directors November 2010 meeting in Madrid as well as the results of consultations with prospective donors to the EFA Fund, no later than January 31, 2011, for the committee’s review and recommendation for approval by the Board of Directors.
Decision requested (2)

• BOD/2010/11-X – Eligible Activities Supported by the EFA Fund: All allocations from the EFA Fund shall be approved by the Board of Directors, except as otherwise delegated by the Board of Directors. The EFA Fund shall be used for:

  – a. Eligible activities outlined in Section 1.1 of the document entitled “The EFA Fund Structure and Operational Design,” presented at the November 2010 meeting of the Board of Directors
  – b. Any other purpose approved by the Board of Directors.
