Principles Agreed for the Hosting MoU between the WB and GPE

Meeting of the Board of the Directors
Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, 18-19 November 2013
For Decision

The Board is requested to:

– endorse the principles which are agreed for the Hosting Memorandum of Understanding (MoU)

– delegate authority to the GPE CEO to complete negotiations with the World Bank to finalize and sign the Hosting MoU by 31 March 2014

– consult with GWG or its successor committee, the Governance, Ethics, Risk and Finance Committee, as soon as it is established, on the negotiations of the Hosting MoU as needed.
Background

• Independent review of “hosting arrangement” concluded in 2012 – Evans Report
• Board approved “Status Quo Plus” – Oct 2012
  – Improvements at both HQ and Country Levels
  – New hosting arrangements
• June 2013 – present: working on new arrangements
Status

• WB and GPE have agreed key principles
  – Fulfill requirements of the Status Quo Plus implementation plan
  – Several areas are pending

• The key principles will form the basis of the Hosting MoU

• Commitment to sign by March 31, 2014
Key Drivers

• Relationship between GPE and the WB is changing
  – Unit of HDN to independent partnership
• GPE interacts with multiple areas of the WB
  – How to leverage relationships?
• GPE may need an independent entity alongside hosted relationship
• Setting precedent at time of significant change
The Hosting MoU will address specific issues set out in the Status Quo Plus Implementation Plan

- Administrative and trust funds roles
- Provide a framework for managing the relationship

The role of the WB as Supervising or Managing Entity will be dealt with in a separate agreement.
